

Ethical Research in the Age of Open Access

IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

SPRING FACULTY CONFERENCE

2016

April 26, 2016. Durham Great Hall, Memorial Union

2016 Spring Faculty Conference Schedule

- 7:30 a.m. Continental Breakfast (provided) and Check in (Great Hall, MU)
- 8:00 a.m. Welcome –
Iowa State Faculty Senate President-elect Jonathan Sturm
- 8:10 a.m. The Research Integrity and its Implications for Faculty, Staff, Students and the University at Large –
Iowa State Senior Vice President and Provost Jonathan Wickert
- 8:30 a.m. How high should the standards for integrity in research be set? –
Dr. Nicholas Steneck, leader in the field of research integrity and professor emeritus of history at the University of Michigan.
- 9:30 a.m. Questions for Dr. Steneck
- 9:50 a.m. Break
- 10:00 a.m. Perspectives on Open Science
Dr. Sarah Nusser, vice president for research at Iowa State University.
- 10:15 Building a Career on Open Access –
Dr. Meredith Niles, open access advocate and assistant professor of nutrition and food sciences at the University of Vermont.
- 11:15 Questions for Dr. Niles
- 11:30 a.m. Dishonesty: The Truth About Lies –
Dr. Dan Ariely, TED speaker, best-selling author, and filmmaker on the topics of irrationality and dishonesty and professor of psychology and behavioral economics at Duke University (via pre-recorded video segment)
- 11:50 Morning session closing remarks –
Iowa State Faculty Senate President Rob Wallace
- 12:00 p.m. Lunch (provided)
- 1:00 p.m. Panel Discussion : Faculty, Staff and Graduate student perspectives and questions
- 2:00 Concluding Comments